DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. This application contains claims directed to more than one species of the generic invention. These species are deemed to lack unity of invention because they are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

The species are as follows:

- Species I – Figures 15-16
- Species II – Figure 17
- Species III – Figures 18A and 18B
- Species IV – Figures 19A and 19B
- Species V – Figures 20A and 20B
- Species VI – Figure 21
- Species VII – Figure 23

Applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single species to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. The reply must also identify the claims readable on the elected species, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered non-responsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

2. The claims are deemed to correspond to the species listed above in the following manner:

- Figures 15-16 – claims 1-24
- Figure 17 – claims 25-28
- Figures 18A-18B – claim 29
- Figures 19A-19B – claims 31-32
- Figures 20A-20B – claim 33
- Figure 21 – claims 34-36
- Figure 23 – claims 37-39

The following claim(s) are generic: NONE.

3. The species listed above do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, the species lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons: Based on the discovered prior art, it is certainly well known to input data by detecting the engagement of a finger to some surface. Since each of these inventions present a different method of inputting this data or a different inventive concept for this well known process, unity of invention does not exist.

4. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
